saint elizabeth

peopled with faces and movement spiraling beyond its boarders a place for openness and understanding concerned with faith people cares human things tragedy and joy truth and ideals summoning forth persons with loud insistent calls men who would be fully human

unity flowing surely like a film called we our class like links of a chain leaves of a tree family round me warm belonging filming of our growing up with undercurrents of trials terrifying fear yearning learning loving incessantly groping children's eyes on the threshold of beholding new worlds each portrait separate each important if one be missing film cannot flow

deeper dimensions in the crowd

giant men torchbearers christians for the 21 st century for they did not hesitate to break old patterns to build a better future bridge to believe and hope and love to run the risk of doubting of waiting painfully patiently bittersweet responsibility serving inspiring challenging leading audacious youth to new ways of seeing

TO SANDY,

To a friend with whom we've done everything under the sun with. I couldn't begin to amount the times and places and things we've done. Remember all the dances the times we've just bombed around, going over to Kathy's house, hacking down bradley, T he time up the farm, Remember when Kibbel comes home the times we have with him. Then going out and shooting pool with Tony and Rich D. Don't forget all the loose parties, the graduation parties. The parties up the farm and everything else. Just remember that we're the best of friends and nothing's going to change that. I can't wait till we room together up at Penn State. Lots of luck in the future.

Your good friend,

Pete

Sandy, I'm with you! I have great friends. I have great teachers. I have great food. I have great fun. I have great friends. I have great teachers. I have great food. I have great fun.

Sandy,
To a great Talinn with a nice aunt. Remember
the bus and me.
Luu ya always
P.S. You're a great
Terri.

Sandy,
To a cool
kid to bad
gooke in the dippy junior class. That's your only trouble being in the class of "Jo".

Luu,
